

KLOVE stations have a HUGE positive influence in our area. I have seen the difference for myself in my own children. Not only does it provide a "safe haven" for listening for me, it also provides a youth friendly alternative to other stations for my children. No other station in my area provides a format acceptable to me as a mother of three teenagers and would be irreplaceable if forced off the air.

Thank You